- 3) [Battery] During the incident the defendant peace officer's (SAVAGE, FRIAS, KRAUSE, LUCERO, and/or BENOIT) conduct constitute an unwanted touching of Plaintiff (STRICKLAND)?

B. Defendant's defenses: (A defendant claiming entitlement to qualified immunity must set forth with specificity the basis of the defense.)

On March 10, 2021, at 9:33 am, Brandi Campbell ("Ms. Campbell") called 911. Ms. Campbell reported that she was driving and that her husband, Jonathan Strickland ("Mr. Strickland"), was following her. Ms. Campbell reported to 911 that Mr. Strickland was driving an orange Toyota Tacoma and that Mr. Strickland was trying to break her mirrors off her car and was bumping his car into hers as they drove. The dispatcher could hear Mr. Strickland yelling at Ms. Campbell over the phone. Once Mr. Strickland realized that Ms. Campbell had called 911, Mr. Strickland left the scene. Officers spoke with Ms. Campbell but did not contact Mr. Strickland.

On March 11, 2021, at approximately 7:30 am, Ms. Campbell went to the Las Cruces Police Department ("LCPD") station. The station was closed, so Ms. Campbell called 911 from a land line at the police station entrance. Ms. Campbell reported that Mr. Strickland put a loaded gun to Ms. Campbell's head and that Mr. Strickland broke Ms. Campbell's phone so that she could not call the police. Ms. Strickland told the dispatcher that she was afraid for her life, and she did not want Mr. Strickland to take their son. Dispatch relayed all of this to officers over the radio and on the CAD.

Officer Jorge Arroyo-Jaime ("Officer Arroyo-Jaime") met with Ms. Campbell at the police station. Ms. Campbell told Officer Arroyo-Jaime that on March 10, 2021 she arrived at home around 2:00 pm. Mr. Strickland and their son were already home when Ms. Campbell arrived. Mr. Strickland was packing up his and their son's belongings. Mr. Strickland told Ms. Campbell that he was taking their son back to Cincinnati, Ohio. Ms. Campbell told Mr. Strickland that she understood if he wanted space.

Mr. Strickland became upset with Ms. Campbell for accepting that Mr. Strickland wanted to leave. Mr. Strickland took Ms. Campbell's phone and keys from her. Mr. Strickland told Ms. Campbell that he had been looking up how long he could go to jail for killing someone and that it was not that bad. Mr. Strickland then retrieved a loaded gun from his bedroom and told the couple's one and half year-old son that, "Mommy's going to die today." After which, Mr. Strickland put the gun to Ms. Campbell's head and told her to take their son to his bedroom and lock the door. Mr. Strickland then pushed Ms. Campbell into their bedroom. Mr. Strickland cocked the gun, but then removed the bullets from it. Mr. Strickland slapped and hit Ms. Campbell. Mr. Strickland eventually fell asleep around 5:00 pm, but woke up around midnight. When Mr. Strickland woke up, he continued yelling at and hitting Ms. Campbell.

Later, around 7:00 am on March 11, 2021, Ms. Campbell got ready to go to work and to take her son to daycare. Mr. Strickland took Ms. Campbell's phone and smashed it. Ms. Campbell took her son to daycare but told Officer Arroyo-Jaime that she did not know if her son was safe at the daycare. Ms. Campbell told Officer Arroyo-Jaime that Mr. Strickland warned her that if she called the police or if they came to the house, that Mr. Strickland would shoot them. Mr. Strickland said, "it was gonna be a shootout." Ms. Campbell informed Officer Arroyo-Jaime that there were three guns in the house (a 9mm, a shotgun, and a rifle), but that only one of them was in Mr. Strickland's name.

At approximately 8:23 am, officers obtained a photograph of Mr. Strickland. Officers thought that Mr. Strickland may be in his apartment. Officers also knew that Mr. Strickland had an orange Toyota pickup with an Ohio license plate. Officer Arroyo-Jaime advised officers searching for Mr. Strickland that Mr. Strickland had access to three firearms, that Mr. Strickland had made threats against law enforcement, and that Mr. Strickland "would shoot it out if contacted."

At 8:27 am, officers learned that Mr. Strickland was "mobile in the orange pickup truck." Officers did not immediately attempt to apprehend Mr. Strickland, instead choosing to surveil him. Officers were concerned that Mr. Strickland may go to his son's daycare and decided to "stay with that child and if we need to lock it down—if he heads that way, lock it down."

At 8:32 am, Mr. Strickland pulled into a store parking lot. Mr. Strickland went into the store for approximately four minutes. While Mr. Strickland was in the store, officers discussed their preparations for detaining him. Sergeant Joshua Savage ("Sgt. Savage"), tactical commander of the incident, said to the officers' the goal was to locate Mr. Strickland to "detain, and detain only." Sgt. Savage stated to officers, "We're gonna move in and detain him. Let's get some resources in the area. Let's get these cameras handed out. We'll keep eyes on. Once everything is set in place and safe, we'll move in. We're gonna do a felony stop the best we can."

At 8:36 am, Mr. Strickland exited the store, reentered his truck, and drove out of the parking lot. Officers discussed over the radio that Mr. Strickland had access to "a couple handguns and a long gun." One of the officers that was following Mr. Strickland said that he was "moving pretty fast."

At 8:41 am, Mr. Strickland pulled into the police station parking lot and parked next to Ms. Campbell's car, facing the police station. Sgt. Savage requested that officers in the police station secure Ms. Campbell. Sgt. Savage decided not to approach Mr. Strickland until officers could place themselves between Mr. Strickland and his truck. Several officers gathered in the police station lobby and in a police station parking lot, out of Mr. Strickland's sight. The officers coordinated less lethal and lethal coverage on Mr. Strickland. Officers in the police station lobby discussed that Mr. Strickland had access to firearms and that he had threatened to “shoot it out” with officers.

An officer observing Mr. Strickland from his patrol unit said that he could not see into Mr. Strickland’s truck because Mr. Strickland’s truck had a dark tint. While Mr. Strickland sat in the parking lot and officers prepared to respond to him, civilians continued to go to the police station. Officers secured all civilians that entered the police station in the police station courtyard. However, other civilians remained sitting in their vehicles in the police station parking lot.

Sgt. Savage and Sergeant Horacio Rivera (“Sgt. Rivera”) decided to advise the fire department, which was next door, and the library, which was across the street, to shelter in place. Sgt. Rivera asked dispatch to have an ambulance on standby on a nearby street. Sgt. Rivera also authorized blocking off all traffic in front of the police station. Lt. Story and Sgt. Savage decided to bring in SWAT and use a BearCat as cover to approach Mr. Strickland. Sgt. Savage also directed Sergeant Adrian Alva (“Sgt. Alva”) and Officer Francis Whitten (“Officer Whitten”) to take position on the roof of the fire department, which was next door. Sgt. Savage, K9 Officer Anthony Lucero (“Officer Lucero”), Officer Manuel Frias (“Officer Frias”), and Officer Daniel Benoit (“Officer Benoit”) staged out of Mr. Strickland’s view in a turn lane on North Main Street at the intersection of North Main Street and East Picacho Avenue. Officer Nathan Krause blocked westbound traffic at East Picacho Avenue and North Campo Street.

At 9:04 am, Mr. Strickland left the police station. Sgt. Savage directed officers to initiate a felony stop on Mr. Strickland. Mr. Strickland briefly stopped his truck in the police station driveway. Three police units, with their emergency lights activated, drove up and stopped in front of Mr. Strickland’s truck, but Mr. Strickland fled from the officers, swerving to avoid them. Mr. Strickland traveled west on East Picacho Avenue before turning south onto North San Pedro Street. Officer Benoit, Sgt. Savage, Officer Krause, Officer Frias, and Officer Lucero pursued Mr. Strickland.

During their pursuit, Sgt. Savage ordered officers to “PIT him.” Officer Benoit attempted multiple PIT maneuvers against Mr. Strickland. There was no other traffic or pedestrians in the area at the time. Mr. Strickland swerved all over the road to evade Officer Benoit’s PIT maneuvers. Officer Benoit’s first PIT maneuver, near the intersection of North San Pedro Street and East Lucero Avenue, failed to stop Mr. Strickland. Mr. Strickland then turned east onto East Hadley Avenue. As Mr. Strickland was turning, Officer Benoit attempted a second PIT maneuver. Mr. Strickland continued driving east on East Hadley Avenue. Mr. Strickland began to turn south onto North Campo Street. At 9:05 am, Officer Benoit attempted a third PIT maneuver which successfully brought Mr. Strickland’s truck to a stop but caused Officer Benoit to crash into a wall.

Seconds after Officer Benoit’s PIT maneuver, at 9:05:34 am, Sgt. Savage stopped his patrol unit directly in front of Mr. Strickland’s truck so that they were “nose-to-nose.” In that moment, Sgt. Savage knew the following: Mr. Strickland had attempted to run Ms. Campbell off the road, Mr. Strickland held Ms. Campbell against her will, Mr. Strickland prevented Ms. Campbell from calling the police, Mr. Strickland put a gun in Ms. Campbell’s mouth, Mr. Strickland had access to two (2) handguns and three (1) rifle, Mr. Strickland made threats that he would shoot police if they tried to contact him, Mr. Strickland had gone to the police station, and Mr. Strickland fled from officers through a residential area.

Sgt. Savage observed Mr. Strickland put his hands together and raise them over the steering wheel and point “what looked like a gun” at Sgt. Savage. Sgt. Savage knew that “the only choice he has at that moment to save his own life was to start shooting at Jonathan Strickland.” At 9:05:36 am, using his department issued AR-15, Sgt. Savage was the first to shoot at Mr. Strickland. To protect himself from the deadly threat posed by Mr. Strickland, Sgt. Savage fired through his windshield at the windshield of Mr. Strickland’s truck.

While Sgt. Savage was shooting his AR-15, Officer Krause stopped his patrol unit in front of Mr. Strickland’s truck, and to the left of Sgt. Savage’s patrol unit. In that moment, Officer Krause knew the following: Mr. Strickland was involved in a domestic violence incident with Ms. Campbell, Mr. Strickland rammed his truck into Ms. Campbell’s car, Mr. Strickland put a gun in Ms. Campbell’s mouth and threatened to kill her, Mr. Strickland waited for Ms. Campbell outside the police station, Mr. Strickland had two (2) handguns and one (1) rifle, Mr. Strickland made threats to “shoot it out with police should they try to make contact with him,” and Mr. Strickland fled from officers.

Officer Krause observed Mr. Strickland “make a motion of holding a handgun coming up over the steering wheel and then heard gunshots being fired.” Officer Krause thought that Mr. Strickland was shooting at Sgt. Savage. At 9:05:40 am, Officer Krause exited his patrol unit and, while standing behind his open driver’s side door, used his department issued pistol to shoot at the front passenger window and door of Mr. Strickland’s truck to end the deadly threat posed by Mr. Strickland.

When Officer Frias arrived, he parked his patrol unit slightly behind Sgt. Savage’s and Officer Krause’s patrol units. In that moment, Officer Frias knew the following: Mr. Strickland was involved in a serious domestic violence incident that occurred the prior night, Mr. Strickland placed a gun in a woman’s mouth and threatened to kill her, the woman said that Mr. Strickland would “shoot it out with police officers if they tried to make contact with him,” Mr. Strickland had multiple handguns and possibly a rifle, Mr. Strickland went to the police station and parked next to his victim’s car, and Mr. Strickland fled from officers.

While Sgt. Savage was shooting at Mr. Strickland’s truck, Officer Frias exited his patrol unit and ran to stand beside the driver’s side door of Sgt. Savage’s patrol unit. As he ran, Officer Frias drew his department issued pistol. Officer Frias “observed numerous holes in the front of Sgt. Savage’s windshield and continued to hear gunfire.” Officer Frias “assumed the suspect was shooting at Sgt. Savage and the other officers and therefore he engaged and started shooting at the suspect’s vehicle.” At 9:05:41 am, Officer Frias began shooting at the windshield of Mr. Strickland’s truck to stop the deadly threat posed by Mr. Strickland.

Officer Lucero was the last officer involved in the shooting to arrive on scene. Officer Lucero parked his patrol unit slightly behind and to the right of Sgt. Savage's patrol unit. In that moment, Officer Lucero knew the following: Mr. Strickland was involved in a domestic violence incident the prior night, Mr. Strickland placed a gun in Ms. Campbell's mouth and threatened to kill her, Mr. Strickland had access to two (2) handguns and one (1) rifle, Mr. Strickland went to the police station and parked next to Ms. Campbell's car, and Mr. Strickland fled from officers through a residential area.

Sgt. Savage, Officer Frias, and Officer Krause were already shooting at Mr. Strickland's truck when Officer Lucero exited his patrol unit. As Officer Lucero exited his patrol unit, he drew his department issued pistol. Officer Lucero could see Mr. Strickland's hands and arms on top of his steering wheel, but the tint was so dark that he could not see anything else.

Officer Lucero ran to the passenger side of Sgt. Savage's patrol unit. Officer Lucero heard gunshots and could see holes in Sgt. Savage's windshield. Given what he saw, Officer Lucero believed that Mr. Strickland was shooting at Sgt. Savage. Officer Lucero felt glass hit his face and thought that he was going to be shot as well.

At 9:05:46 am, Sgt. Savage exited his patrol unit, leaving his AR-15 behind. Sgt. Savage's patrol unit rolled forward slowly, pushing Mr. Strickland's truck backwards a few feet. Sgt. Savage saw the distance between his patrol unit and Mr. Strickland's truck close and realized that Mr. Strickland was still inside, still armed, and was trying to escape. Therefore, Sgt. Savage believed that Mr. Strickland still posed a deadly threat and drew his department issued pistol and shot at the windshield of Mr. Strickland's truck.

At 9:05:46, after Officer Frias yelled that he was reloading, Officer Lucero began shooting at the windshield of Mr. Strickland's truck to stop the deadly threat he posed. Officer Lucero slowly walked alongside Sgt. Savage's patrol unit, keeping the windshield of Mr. Strickland's truck within his view.

Sgt. Savage called for all responding officers to hold their fire. All officers obeyed Sgt. Savage's command to hold their fire. While Sgt. Savage was ordering officers to hold their fire, Officer Benoit, who had crashed through a fence, managed to exit his patrol unit and climb on top of it. Officer Benoit stayed on his patrol unit's roof and provided lethal cover while the other officers planned how to detain Mr. Strickland. Officer Lucero warned that Mr. Strickland's truck was still moving. Sgt. Savage called into dispatch, reporting that there were "several shots fired" and requested the BearCat to help them clear Mr. Strickland's truck. Officer Frias warned that he could still hear Mr. Strickland inside his truck. Officer Lucero ran back to his patrol unit to retrieve his police service dog, K9 Jax, in case they were needed to assist with apprehending Mr. Strickland. The other officers took cover behind Sgt. Savage's patrol unit and ordered Mr. Strickland to step out and show his hands. Officer Benoit observed that Mr. Strickland was showing his hands and ordered Mr. Strickland to exit his truck.

Mr. Strickland exited his truck, falling to the ground. Mr. Strickland laid on his stomach, facing away from the officers. Officer Krause ordered Mr. Strickland to crawl towards him. Mr. Strickland yelled back that he could not move his right leg. Officer Krause ordered Mr. Strickland to put his hands to the sides, and Mr. Strickland obeyed.

Officer Lucero stood by, keeping K9 Jax restrained on a leash while K9 Jax barked and lunged at Mr. Strickland. At 9:07:03, an officer called for an ambulance. Seconds later, officers cautiously approached Mr. Strickland. Officer Sergio Mendez (“Officer Mendez”) handcuffed Mr. Strickland at 9:07:20 am. While Officer Mendez handcuffed Mr. Strickland, Officer Krause confirmed with Sgt. Savage that an ambulance was coming. After handcuffing Mr. Strickland, Officer Mendez noticed a large bulge in Mr. Strickland’s left front pocket. Officer Mendez removed the item from Mr. Strickland’s pocket and saw that it was a wallet. Officer Mendez checked Mr. Strickland’s other pocket and waistband for weapons and found none.

While Officer Mendez was searching Mr. Strickland, another officer called for a medpack. Simultaneously, Sgt. Savage called for an ambulance. One minute after Officer Mendez handcuffed Mr. Strickland, Officer Jonathan Rivera brought a medpack to Mr. Strickland’s side. Officer Lazaro Palos (“Officer Palos”) cut off Mr. Strickland’s shirt and pants, looking for gunshot wounds. Officer Palos found gunshot wounds on Mr. Strickland’s upper back, lower back, and right buttock.

Officer Palos placed a chest seal on Mr. Strickland’s upper back. Officer Krause placed a chest seal on Mr. Strickland’s lower back. Officer Palos helped Officer Daniel Rodriguez (“Officer Rodriguez”), a SWAT medic, pack the wound on Mr. Strickland’s right buttock, which was bleeding profusely. Then, Officer Palos and Officer Rodriguez wrapped an Israeli bandage around Mr. Strickland’s right leg and hip, applying as much pressure as possible. While providing first aid, the officers tried to keep Mr. Strickland alert, asking him to talk to them. While officers were providing first aid to Mr. Strickland, paramedics arrived. The officers continued to provide first aid to Mr. Strickland while the paramedics brought a stretcher to Mr. Strickland. An ambulance transported Mr. Strickland to Memorial Hospital.
